"THERE'S NO INDISPENSABLE MAN"

Sometimes when you're feeling important!
Sometime when your ego's in bloom:
Sometime when you take it for granted
You're the best qualified in the room;

Sometime when you feel that your going
Would leave an unfillable hole,
Just follow these simple instructions
And see how it humbles your soul.

Take a bucket and fill it with water,
Put you hand in it, up to the wrist;
Pull it out; and the hole that's remaining
Is a measure of how you'll be missed.

You may splash all you please when you enter
You can stir up the water galore,
But stop, and you'll find in a minute,
That it looks quite the same as before.

The moral in this quaint example
Is do just the best that you can,
Be proud of yourself, but remember,
THERE'S NO INDISPENSABLE MAN.

Lex,
There's not much
I can say. If I tell you to be good you won't take my advice.
If I tell you to study, you'll say forget it.
So just stay happy and have fun. Keep

Good luck.

Wally,
I've never really known how to say it either, but my feelings toward you, are, I hope, the same as yours toward me. Do you comprehend? No matter how I might treat you, (like dirt) I think the world of you. You are Naive but I guess that's what I like about you. Remember our bet about OSU.
Keep smiling.

Reflections

In picturing the high points of a school year, the common everyday events are sometimes forgotten. These events which go on, not only early in the morning or late in the afternoon, are continuous throughout the whole school day. Included in this section are some of the special events which have played an important part in our lives during school hours.

Though the Crystal realizes that picturing every student in a school the size of Clay is nearly impossible, we have attempted to reflect an overview of the school life of the average student here.
